RESTAURANT GUIDE

ROTARY DISTRICT 5020 LEARNING &
CELEBRATION EVENT

MAY 2026

ABOUT VICTORIA

Situated on the southern tip of Vancouver Island, Victoria is one of the oldest and most storied cities in the Pacific Northwest. The city sits on the traditional territory of the Lekwungen-speaking peoples – the Songhees and Xwsepsum Nations – whose presence on this land stretches back over 10,000 years.

Today, the Greater Victoria area is home to roughly 400,000 people. It welcomes more than 3.5 million overnight visitors each year – drawn by its mild climate (the warmest in Canada), its remarkable concentration of heritage architecture, its award-winning cycling infrastructure, and its famously relaxed island character.

On Saturday, May 9th, each Rotarian will receive a $25 poker chip redeemable at any of the restaurants listed in this guide. Additional expenditures must be paid for individually. You will have a two-hour lunch window from 11:15 AM to 1:15 PM to explore at your own pace. All of the featured restaurants are within easy walking distance of the conference venue, so lace up your shoes, take in the harbour views, and enjoy a taste of what Victoria does best.

THE DRAKE EATERY

FARM TO TABLE WEST COAST PUB

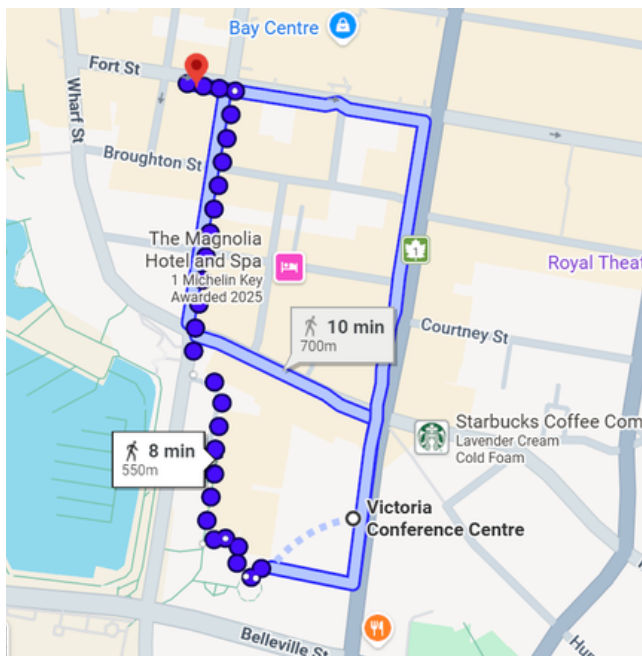

Craft beer lovers will feel right at home at The Drake, tucked into historic Market Square on Pandora Avenue. Inside, 29 rotating taps showcase some of the finest and hardest-to-find West Coast craft beers alongside cider, mead, wine, and cocktails. The food menu is concise and genuinely excellent: farm-to-table small plates, seasonal vegetables, and creative sandwiches made from quality local suppliers.

BARD & BANKER

ELEVATED PUB FOOD

Step into one of Victoria's most stunning heritage spaces at the Bard & Banker, housed in the magnificent 1885 Bank of British Columbia building on Government Street. Designed by Warren H. Williams – the same architect behind Craigdarroch Castle – this grand two-storey structure features soaring ceilings, ornate chandeliers, and rich wood finishes that make it as much a landmark as a pub. Today, the Bard serves up hearty West Coast pub fare, alongside an impressive lineup of craft beers and cocktails.

FINN'S SEAFOOD

SEAFOOD AND STEAKHOUSE

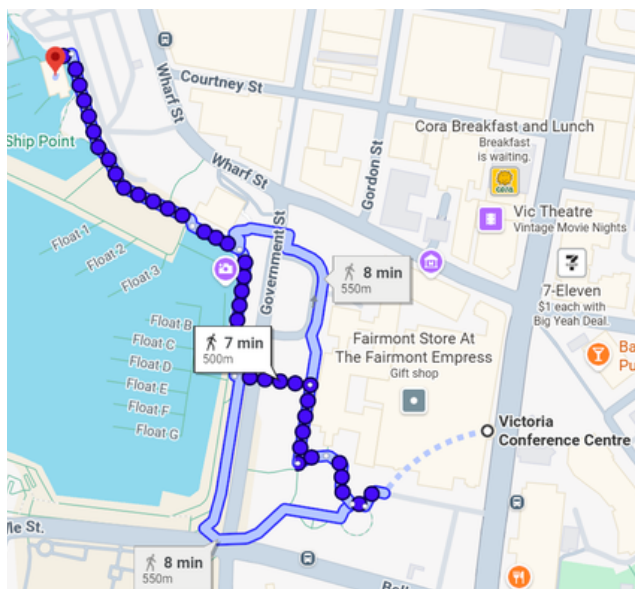

Perched in an 1882 heritage building right on Wharf Street, Finn's enjoys one of the most enviable perches in the city – a 60-seat patio with sweeping views of the Inner Harbour and the Parliament Buildings. Executive Chef Richard Luttmann leads a kitchen known for sustainably caught seafood, AAA steaks cut in-house, and crowd favourites like Dungeness crab, sablefish, and seafood linguine. Whether you're here for a leisurely harbour lunch or a celebratory dinner, the vibe is warm and unhurried.

FLYING OTTER GRILL

WEST COAST SURF'N'TURF

For a dining experience unlike any other in Victoria, head to the Flying Otter – a floating restaurant perched right on the Harbour Air Seaplane docks at 950 Wharf Street. Watch float planes taxi in and out as you tuck into West Coast favourites like fish and chips, seafood paella, wild BC salmon en croute, and the beloved coastal chowder. The relaxed, dockside atmosphere is perfectly paired with cold local beers and a harbour backdrop that draws visitors back again and again.

FRANKIE'S MODERN DINER

ITALIAN & AMERICAN COMFORT FOOD

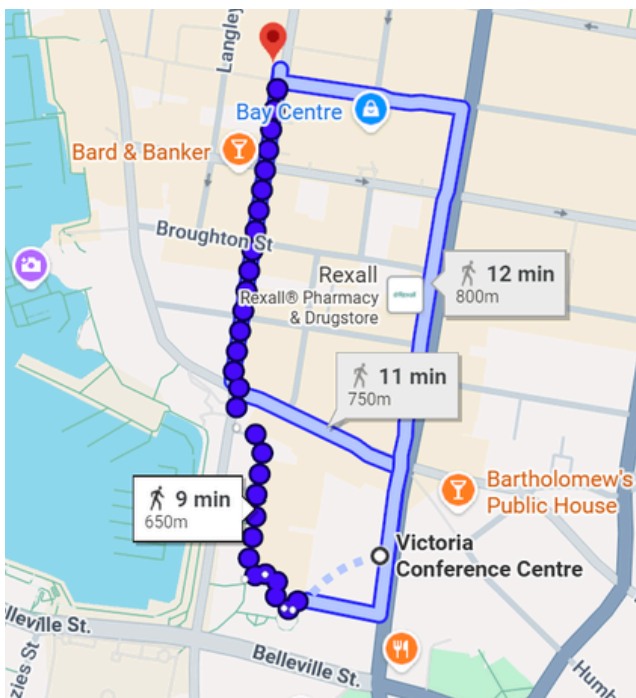

Tucked along Government Street in the heart of downtown, Frankie's Modern Diner is a lively, locally-owned gem that puts a contemporary spin on the classic diner experience. Inspired by owner Frank Naccarato's Italian family roots, the kitchen turns out everything from scratch – hearty eggs benedict, spaghetti and meatballs, burgers, pizza and stromboli that have earned it multiple OpenTable awards for Best Brunch, Best Burger, and Neighbourhood Gem. The vibe is bright and unpretentious, the portions are generous, and the welcome is warm.

IRISH TIMES PUB

IRISH PUB FOOD

Victoria's only authentic Irish pub has a location and a history that can't be beat. The building was designed in 1894 by the legendary architect Sir Francis Rattenbury, the architect behind the iconic Empress Hotel. Inside, cozy fireplaces, dark timber, Victorian etched glass, and gold chandeliers transport you across the Atlantic. The menu offers Irish classics like shepherd's pie, bangers and mash, and a famous Irish stew, alongside freshly shucked local oysters and seafood chowder. With over 40 taps – including the largest selection of Irish whiskeys in Canada – it's no surprise the Irish Times was named Best Irish Pub in North America in 2017.

SHUCK TAYLOR'S

OYSTER BAR

Shellfish devotees, rejoice! Shuck Taylor's is Victoria's most dedicated oyster bar. The setting is intimate and unpretentious, with a small oyster bar perfect for watching the shucking action up close. The menu keeps things focused: a rotating selection of Pacific and Atlantic oysters, a Dungeness crab boil for two, Nova Scotia lobster rolls, caviar bumps, and housemade oyster-shell-infused spirits. Their motto says it all: We dive, you dine.

LA TAQUISA

AUTHENTIC MEXICAN

A true Victoria original, La Taquisa is a locally owned, family-run Mexican restaurant with a story as warm as the food. It all started in 2010 with a food cart in Cook Street Village, where Sindy – originally from Guadalajara, Mexico – and Scott, a trained chef with over two decades of experience, began sharing Sindy's authentic family recipes with the neighbourhood. That humble cart has since grown into two beloved Victoria locations. However, their cooking philosophy has never wavered: everything made from scratch, with local antibiotic- and hormone-free meats sourced from BC farms like Cowichan Bay and the Fraser Valley. The menu is built around handmade, fresh-pressed corn tortillas – naturally gluten-free – with a wide choice of fillings. Unpretentious, generous, and genuinely delicious, La Taquisa is not to be missed!

THE TAPA BAR

SPANISH TAPA BAR

Hidden down Victoria's charming Trounce Alley off Government Street, the Tapa Bar has been a downtown favourite since 1996 – making it one of the longest-running independent restaurants in the city. The setting feels genuinely transported from a Spanish neighbourhood: a cozy, vibrant room with covered patio seating and an intimate, buzzy atmosphere. The menu blends traditional and non-traditional Spanish tapas, with standout dishes like gambas al ajillo, Cha Cha Cha mussels in fiery red pepper sauce, charred carrots with sweet mustard, and calamari fritos. Come hungry, come with friends, and plan to share everything.

THE OLD SPAGHETTI FACTORY

ITALIAN

A beloved staple of the Victoria dining scene since 1999, the Old Spaghetti Factory is just a two-minute walk from the Victoria Conference Center. Part of a proudly 100% Canadian-owned chain dating back to 1970, the Victoria location carries on the tradition of generous, all-inclusive pasta dinners served in a festive atmosphere filled with stained glass, vintage decor, and antique fixtures. Whether you are drawn to the classic browned butter and Mizithra spaghetti or something more adventurous, this is comfort food done with care.

FIRE & WATER

FISH & CHOP HOUSE

Located inside the Victoria Marriott Inner Harbour, Fire + Water is a polished yet approachable restaurant that puts locally sourced, Pacific Coast ingredients at the centre of the plate. The menu draws on a range of cultural influences to deliver fresh seafood, seared steaks, and creative small plates – perfectly matched by a rotating selection of craft beers. The modern dining room and street-level patio make it ideal for everything from a business lunch to a birthday dinner.
